Canoe

Trip
Report

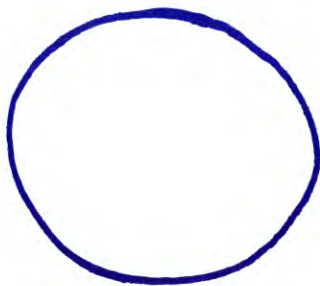

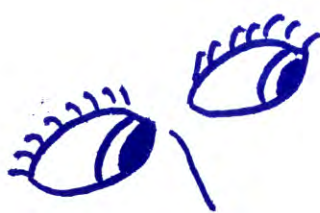

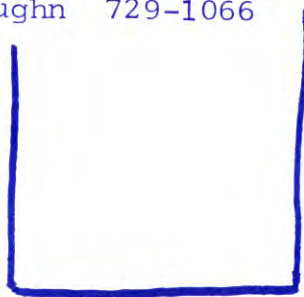

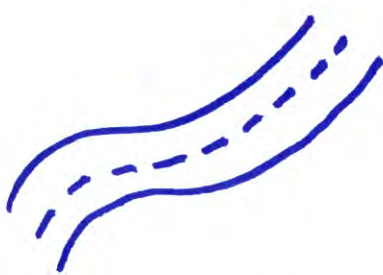

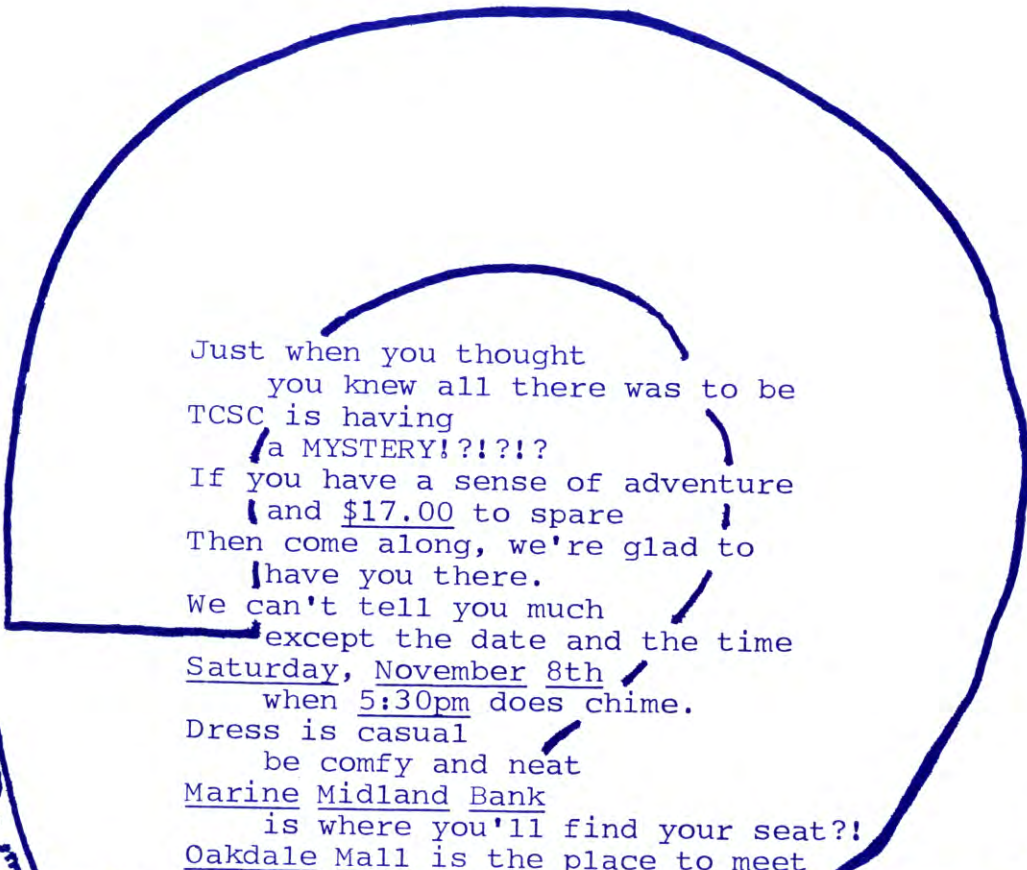

TCSC's first weekend canoe trip took place Aug 1-3 and was a total success. Most of us arrived Friday afternoon and got tents set up just before the rain. We were a real sight, 40 some people under two dining flies. Fortunately the rain didn't last long. Supper was great with Larry Marshall's chicken wings being the hit of the evening. Were they ever hot! It took three beers to recover after each one. The rest of the evening saw everyone sitting around the camp fire singing, Snipe hunting and meeting Katey. Saturday morning the breakfast crew was up at 6 getting the coffee and donuts ready and making so much noise the rest of us couldn't sleep. Thanks Jan and Clara. We finally hit the river by noon with our flotilla of 24 canoes, 5 tubes, three Larrys, three Steves, two Marks and one Eileen (TG). The day was warm, humid and cloudy and uneventful except for Tom losing a big one, Cass starting water fights, Kathy bailing out at Skinners falls in the middle of the rapids and taking Larry M with her. Get your canoe fixed yet, Kath? Saturday evening we had a fantastic steak dinner even though it took a while to thaw out the frozen steaks, trip leader messed up again. More songs etc. around the campfire and then time for bed, but that's not all folks. About 2:30 AM the camp was awoken to the cries of Skunk ... It seems a certain young lady decided to leave her tent for a walk and found a Skunk blocking her return. Things got tense for a moment but the Skunk finally waddled away. The young lady found a safer tent. Ask Wendy about it, she saw the whole thing. Sunday morning finally arrived with breakfast, church, sunshine and Tony untying and tying and untying his one man canoe from the trailer as the final count of canoes was taken (right Tom). Tom was riding through the Pennsylvania country side deciding if he wanted to brave the Delaware another day and he didn't tell the trip leaders! Naughty, naughty Tom. We finally got underway from Buckingham PA. This time Ann started the water fights by tipping over her own canoe. Rich fished while Clara paddled. Carol tried to keep from getting bored by playing volley ball with the other canoes. And then someone spotted a rope hanging from a tree on a rock ledge. Let me tell ya, that tied us up for a while and caused the trip leaders some skipped heart beats. I can still hear Wendy saying "letgooooo" after the budding Tarzans reached the end of their rope. Somehow during all the commotion Cass and John's boat ended up on the other side of the river. About 2PM someone shouted feeding time and all the canoes came floating only to tie up together in an unorganized floating mass. Things were going well, good friends sharing lunch on the river etc. until Ken started passing around the left over donuts by air. One finally got wet and landed on Carol. Within a few seconds a full food fight ensued. What a way to break up a party. Ask Laura about it. We finally pulled up on the beaches of the Red Barn Campsite and started packing up for home. To all of you who participated, a great big thanks from us, your trip leaders. We greatly appreciate your help, company and friendship. Our hosts at the Red Barn Campsite in Hankins N.Y., Nani, Jack and Scott, were very pleased with our TCSC group and welcome us back next year. Good people make good trips. Thanks again.

TIPS 'N EDGES

There was a time when the T.C.S.C. was a bastion of singles, content to stay that way. Some still are, but not many. Beware!! It's catching... Those that have succumbed or soon to hitch are Judy Furlong and Bill Bernier, Melody Reese and Mark Hrycyk, Lynne Taylor and Roger Jensen, and Mary Cashel and John Montgomery.

Tom Pollak took time out from the recent opening of his real estate office, "Orion Realty", to team up with Dick Tambini and attend the Taylor-Jensen wedding as BRIDESMAIDS. I guess Dick shaved more than his face that day. END

This column will appear each month if there is continuing interest and contributions from the general membership. Please call or send me what you want printed in "TIPS 'N EDGES". My address and phone are:
